COLLEGE CHRONICLE

The month was marked by two remarkable celebrations that brought the campus community together in a spirit of patriotism, cultural harmony and joyful fellowship.

Dear Reader

Greetings!

It gives me immense pleasure to present the August 2026 edition of our monthly newsletter, "JP Blossom".

August is a month that reminds us of freedom, responsibility, and progress. As we celebrate the spirit of independence, let us also rededicate ourselves to the values of knowledge, discipline, and service that define our institution.

I am proud to see our students and faculty blossoming with creativity, achievements, and commitment in both academics and co-curricular activities. JP Blossom is a true reflection of this vibrant spirit.

I appreciate the editorial team for their dedicated efforts in bringing out this edition beautifully and on time.

I wish all the readers a happy and informative reading.

With Best Wishes
